Dear Ms. Till:

This is in regard to the applications for patent term extension for U.S. Patent Nos. 5,258,028; 5,336,263; and 5,571,182, filed by Uroplasty, Inc. under 35 U.S.C. 156 et seq.

We have received confirmation that the FDA has determined the regulatory review period for the medical device covered by the claims of these patents. However, we have received no word from the United States Patent and Trademark Office concerning these petitions.

The purpose of this letter is to inquire into the current status of these petitions, in particular with respect to when action on them will be taken.

Very truly yours,
